Golden Gate Reunion Spot For Carleys

Today the Clay B. Carleys of 1746 Manuel Ave., will be reunited with their son, First Lt. George Carley, who has been stationed with the U. S. Army in Korea for the past several months.

The Carleys left by plane this morning for San Francisco, where they will meet the lieutenant. He is flying down from Seattle, Wash., where his ship, the U.S.S. Hauser, is at anchor. The trio will make a two-week tour of the Western states, in George's new Mercury convertible. The lieutenant will then return to Torrance with his parents, remaining until his 30-day leave expires. His new post of duty will be at Carson Army Base in Colorado.

During the tour the Carleys will visit another son and his wife, Clay B. Carley Jr., and three grandsons at their home in Santa Rosa.

1953-54 Successful Service, Cultural Year for Senior Club

Illustrative of the service, social, and cultural activities of the Torrance Woman's Club is the 1953-54 year, which came to a successful close last June under the leadership of Mrs. Grover C. (Lucille) Van Deventer, who held the president's gavel.

The club particularly excelled in the field of philanthropy, making the most notable contribution of any Torrance organization to the Sister Kenny campaign. Members canvassed their neighborhoods voluntarily, collecting more than $500 for the anti-polio fund.

ALEX HUNTS BACK FROM N.Y. TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt of 3335 Reese Road returned Wednesday after spending an exciting two weeks in the East visiting friends and relatives.

In New York City the couple stayed at the Savoy Plaza Hotel, and, in addition to seeing the sights of the city, found time to see "Pajama Game" on Broadway. With their son, Andrew, who accompanied them on the trip, they stayed at the Jersey shore home of Mrs. Hunt's father, G. A. Robertshaw.

A horrid isle home of the Massachusetts coast, the Torrance family visited Hunt's mother, Mrs. Janet W. Hunt. They saw Mrs. George Gulek, a friend of Mrs. Hunt when she lived in New York City, at Mountain Lakes, N. J.

The Hunts flew to and from the Eastern cities.

Margaret Ann New Daughter For F. Foleys

With light brown hair and big blue eyes, little Margaret Ann is a dream of everything sweet in a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Foley of 1650 W. 204th St.

The 10-week old miss came to the Foley family from the Holy Family Adoption Service in Los Angeles. She joins brother David, who is 2 1/2, and is also adopted.

If David wants to grow up to be a fireman, he'll be just like his Daddy, who is employed by Los Angeles as a fireman. Margaret Ann may follow her mother by being active on the YWCA board, the Torrance Woman's Club and the Harbor Area Board of Campfire Council.

Grandparents of the two charmers are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davidson of Storm Lake, Iowa and Mrs. N. C. Smith of Lynnwood.

Clever Games Add Fun To Party for Lynn Sexton

Two clever games added to the merriment of the occasion yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Toby Rogers opened her Manhattan Beach home for a pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Lynn Sexton.

Guests were instructed to write an adjective on a piece of paper. The descriptive words were then collected by the hostess and filled in to complete a story about the bride-to-be, who will exchange vows with John Marvin Metzler on Aug. 16.

As each friend entered the Rogers' home, a name tag identifying her as a prominent news personality was pinned on the back of her costume. She then had to determine her own identity by asking questions of the other guests.

After Miss Sexton opened her many gaily-wrapped gifts, refreshments of peach parfait, ice box cookies, mixed nuts, and tea were served. Vari-colored roses from Mrs. Rogers' garden formed the center bouquet, flanked by white tapers on a grass linen cloth. Additional color was added by small plates of green and white mints.

Included on the guest list were Mrs. T. E. Brent, grandmother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. Charles Sexton, her mother; Miss Janet Govan of Palos Verdes, who will serve as maid of honor; and Miss Peggy Strachan of Palos Verdes and Rosemary Sharar of San Pedro, who will attend as bridesmaids.

Also invited were Mrs. Walter Del Bose and daughter, Diane, of Hermosa Beach; Diane's cousin, Miss Mary Vance of Pasadena; Mmes. Edward Grant of Manhattan Beach; Lona Johnson of Redondo Beach; Ted Gorazza of Hollywood Riviera; Lilla Scally, Willie Collins, and Dean Carrier, all of Hermosa Beach.

Misses Carla Fischer of Rolling Hills and Frances Johnson of Redondo Beach.
